COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The town reports were mailed on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. A copy is given to each P. O. box holder and rural delivery box. Anyone who doesn't get a town report may get one at the office. The back cover of the report states in clear language that the reports should be brought to town meeting because the supply is limited.

The practice of including the declaration form for a list of Polls and Estates in the center of the book has been used again this year. These forms should be kept and presented to the Assessors on April 1, 1964. Additional forms may also be obtained at the town office.

The Fire Station Study Committee contacted the New England Fire Insurance Rating Association and requested that one of their engineers come to Bethel to review the plans and locations for a new fire station. The Rating Association is very busy and will not be able to send an engineer until after town meeting.

There have been a couple of calls regarding the surplus that is available to be used to reduce taxes. On page 53 of the town report is the Comparative Balance Sheet of the State Department of Audit. On December 31, 1962, the surplus was $63,001.07 and $33,000.00 was used last year to reduce taxes, leaving a balance of $30,001.07.

The amount available on Dec. 31, 1963, was $59,025.80 and the budget committee has recommended taking $29,000.00 from surplus leaving a balance of $30,025.80. It would be poor fiscal policy to take more than $29,000.00 from surplus.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE EXPLAINS REQUEST FOR HIGHER APPROPRIATION

The Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce, this year, asked the Town Budget Committee to consider recommending the voters to raise up to $2000 for the Chamber's use in promotion and advertising of Bethel.

The request was given the approval of the Budget Committee. Usually the committee has approved appropriating only $200 for the organization.

The Chamber has re-organized itself because of the desire of the membership to become active as a force for improving the area's economy. As one step to this end, they have agreed upon an increased membership dues assessment.

Through this request to the voters, each one of the town's taxpayers will have an opportunity to share with the Chamber in this forward step. For each one dollar and twenty cents of taxes paid, only one cent would make this appropriation. This support would enable the Chamber to launch a real program of promotion.

It would also alleviate the necessity of returning again to business people for donations of money—after they have already accepted increased dues.

The Publicity Committee of the Chamber is studying several suggestions for particular events to promote during each season, as a means of raising money for the Chamber, and of attracting new money for the locality.

It is the Chamber's aim that returns on this investment of one penny of every dozen dimes paid for taxes in 1964 will eventually improve the welfare of the whole community.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

February 24, 1964
Bethel, Maine

Editor
The Bethel Citizen
Bethel, Maine

Dear Sir:
In the 1964 Bethel Town Meeting Warrant, there is an article to see whether the town will vote to authorize the fluoridation of the water supplied to the town by the Bethel Water Company. Many people have requested the Bethel Health and Service Council, which voted to insert the article, to explain a few things about this prior to town meeting.

As chairman of the Council's Dental Health Committee since it was started in 1961, I have been acutely aware of the condition of the teeth of the children in our area. We have sought to improve this phase of health which carries with it potential for better general health.

The prevention of dental decay can be aided considerably by adjusting the fluoride content of public drinking water supplies. In children who have this, from birth, at the recommended level of 1 part of fluoride to 1 million parts of water, one drop to thirteen gallons, cavities are reduced up to 60% and proportionate benefits have been recognized in children receiving it at any age, and in varying amounts.

In Norway, where fluoridation has been in effect eleven years, there has been marked improvement in the rate of reduction of dental decay in children drinking fluoridated water only at school. We hope this will answer the question as to how much a child should have.

As to the influence of fluorides on other physical conditions. The evidence does not support claims that fluoridation of water has caused any change in the type of, or amount of, other diseases in the area which has fluoridation. This is in reference to questions about such ailments as cancer, heart, and kidney disease. However, it has been some evidence that fractures of the bones are less prevalent in fluoridated areas and fluorides are actually used as therapy for certain diseases of the bones.

The regulation, or control, of the fluoridation process, is by the State of Maine Dept. of Health and Welfare. Regular inspection and examination of the water for fluoride content, and of the water supply plant, is all part of the guarantee of safe, pure water for local consumers.

Yes, fluorides are available in tablet form. However, their cost puts them out of reach of those who need them most, and can least afford them. Such a source is virtually impossible for a public health program.

Topical sodium fluoride applications were offered to local children in 1963, and on a smaller scale in 1962, with excellent family response. Because we have a public water supply, we are lost on the eligibility list for this service from the state. We expect that this service this year will be down to only two full time, and one part-time, hygienists. The eligible towns are also, unfortunately, applying to be included for this program whenever possible.

Fluoridation's cost is regulated by the Public Utilities Commission, which is the financial safeguard and control. The cost is borne by the water consumer, not by taxation. It must be voted for by the majority of the inhabitants present at town meeting. The cost of fluoridation is a reasonably small amount, according to the amount of equipment necessary to incorporate the program, depending on its local conditions.

With sincere feeling that this is the time for citizens of Bethel to vote for fluoridation, I encourage you to vote for this article at town meeting, March 2.

Very truly yours,
Natalie H. Tuckerside

TWO SIDES TO FLUORIDATION

Citizens of Bethel will vote for or against fluoridation of the water supply at town meeting. There are two sides to this question. Many good citizens do not feel it is right to use the public water supply for mass medication for the teeth or any other purpose in the line of medication. There is also the question of it being in accord with the U. S. Constitution which protects the rights of the minority as well as the majority. Our largest city in Maine, Greater Portland has already voted against it by a decisive majority. Cambridge, Mass., has voted against it after having voted for it at a previous election. We do hope that one of the finest, purest water supplies in Maine at Bethel will not be used for fluoridation.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:
"The people of every country are the only safe guardians of their own rights," said a great citizen of our country, Thomas Jefferson. Let every one of us be awake to the opportunity to vote down whatever would subvert our rightful freedom of choice.

Fluoridation of the water supply is a form of compulsory medication and is not a truly American project. If any man wishes to use fluorides for his children, that is his right and privilege, his own business. If any man does not wish to do so, that is his right and privilege, his own business.

Every alert thinker in our community cherishes the American point of view, which includes the freedom of an individual to choose his own physician and medicine. Compulsory medication is opposed to man's exercise of this freedom. Socialized medicine must never be allowed to take the place of individual initiative and industry.

There a camel gets its head in an Arab's tent, in comes the hump! Let us vote to prevent unwise intrusions.

Sincerely yours,
Irma Thompson

Letter to the Editor

As a parent of students attending Bethel grade schools, I would like to express my appreciation to Dr. and Mrs. Henderson for their effort and sincerity to raise money for the JTA.

I think they did a fine job and had an original idea for bringing a Hoosier to Bethel.

They certainly deserve an applause of praise, as this second couple now in town do not even have children in school yet.

I say thanks for taking an interest in the welfare of my children and others in school at Bethel.

I know, as do many others, that they had a great deal to do to organize a project such as this and they will be blessed for their work of "charity."

Signed,
Parents from Albany

Our So Worth!

Thoughts for the residents of Bethel, regarding school bus transportation for all students. Many children of Bethel, West Bethel, South Bethel and East Bethel walk 7 to 10 miles to and from school. Some boys hitch hike this distance. Some have dropped out of school. This September girls will travel the same routes. Is it necessary to have our sons and daughters exposed to the inherent dangers of hitch hiking? Is it necessary to have to walk?

We have been told many of the parents walked in their days of schooling. Times changed. Mothers of that generation used old fashioned cradle boards also. Today we have automobile wheels.

Mrs. had lived in Wentworth Location for many years and will be greatly missed as she was always ready to help in times of sickness, death, or in any other trouble. She was always a kind friend and neighbor.

Is Bethel so poor and backward that our students can not be transported to high school for an education?

Our government states that of the 1,500,000 men called for draft in June for the service, 1.3 will be unable to pass exams. The main reason being lack of an education due to high school drop outs.

20 SECONDS with the NAZARENE

To the dying thief Jesus said: "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Two thieves hung on crosses that day; one in mockery cried: "If thou be Christ, save us!" One for mercy cried: "Lord, remember me!"

One was saved—let no one despair.
One was lost—let no one presume.

VOTE NO ON FLUORIDATION

Because the issue is

Controversial. Scientists still disagree on safety, long-range effect, etc.

Needless. Other methods are available for personal treatment.

Un-American. Thousands do not want chemicals in any more than they want laxatives, vitamins, etc., because some need them!

EUBERTO BROWN

Euberto Parker Brown died last Thursday, Feb. 20, at Concord, N. H.

He was born in Albany, July 4, 1877, son of Harvey and Martha Morrill Brown. Mr. Brown had been a road foreman for the community for 28 years and was a member of the Odd Fellows.

Survivors include his widow, Mary, Bethel; two daughters, Mrs. Yvonne Charlton, East Kingston, N. H.; and Mrs. Martha Von Zant, Bethel; a son, Gilbert, Kennebunk; two grandsons, Gary P. York, Bethel, and Roberto P. York, East Kingston, N. H.; and a sister, Mrs. Lucie Morse, Norway.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Greenleaf funeral home with Rev. Clifford Laws officiating. Burial at Riverside Cemetery, Bethel.

The death of Bert Brown, one of a generation of strong men and true, marks the fast closing of an era. An era of stout manhood that had pride in hard work and worthwhile achievement that has left its wholesome mark on our community.

We knew him best as road commissioner and many are reviewing his years of service, his enormous energy and his efficiency. His spade or snow shovel were always at hand and he used them well. Thirty-five years ago power machines were in infancy and country roads often impassable. Hospitals were distant and doctors made sick calls and delivered babies in homes at all hours.

Many a night Bert was breaking trail to isolated homes through blizzards and ten foot drifts and getting the doctor there in time. Always in cheerfulness as he considered this his line of duty. In all things he went the second mile.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The town meeting was well attended and very controlled. Everyone had an opportunity to express views on all articles. The moderator did an excellent job conducting a meeting that several articles that were decided by a small margin. Whether or not anyone is happy at the outcome of the various articles, the fact remains that articles were thoroughly discussed and the majority ruled.

I don't know of any official count at the meeting but would say that the attendance was between 350 and 375. I think it was a very good turnout and I would like to see as much interest at every town meeting both regular and special.

The statement has been made that the group in favor of school transportation will request a special town meeting. The request will first be made of the selectmen to call a special town meeting and if it is refused then a petition will be circulated. I personally am in favor of a special town meeting to again vote on this subject unless circumstances substantially changed. Everyone must agree that the present conditions of high school transportation are not to offer the traveling public.
